

Name _____ Date _____ Class _____

“One Night Stand[off]”
By Louis L’Amour

1. Write the definition of dramatic irony in your own words.
2. Identify examples of dramatic irony in “One Night Stand[off].”
3. How does dramatic irony create comedy or suspense in this story?
4. Share one example of dramatic irony from a movie or a book you have read.
5. Write the definition of foreshadowing in your own words.

Name _____ Date _____ Class _____

“One Night Stand[off]”
By Louis L’Amour

1. Write the definition of dramatic irony in your own words.
2. Identify examples of dramatic irony in “One Night Stand[off].”
3. How does dramatic irony create comedy or suspense in this story?
4. Share one example of dramatic irony from a movie or a book you have read.
5. Write the definition of foreshadowing in your own words.