

2. Evidence, warrants and transition Rugs are not out of place
warrant and conclusion
3. Evidence, warrants and transition Clothes are not disheveled warrant.

Conclusion -

IV. Paragraph 4 (third body paragraph)

- A. Topic Sentence: Transitions and reason three Finally, we believe that Queenie was covering up evidence that she killed him.
- B. Evidence categories, evidence and transitions: I needed/wanted to call.
 1. Evidence, warrants and transition Autopsy wound on the head
 2. Evidence, warrants and transition cooking & autopsy wound on head
 3. Evidence, warrants and transition Frying pan

Conclusion

V. Paragraph 5 Conclusion

A. Transitions: In conclusion,

- F. C. B. Restatement of thesis: _____
- C. Recommendation/solution: what you think happened scenario what should happen to Queenie?

Counterargument or opposing argument - Why someone wouldn't agree with your claim?

A. Are there counterarguments? _____ If yes, what? If no, what might a counterargument be? _____

B. Your solution: _____

C. Where will you put it _____