

Name _____ Date _____ Class _____

Read Like a Detective

Directions: Foreshadowing is a literary device used by authors that provides important clues for the reader to predict what will occur later on in the story. As we read The Stranger by Chris Van Allsburg, pay attention to significant clues in the text that will help you predict events in the story. We need to figure out who the stranger is. Use the foreshadowing clues to solve the mystery.

Who is the stranger? _____

Foreshadowing Clues/Evidence (How did you figure out who the stranger was?)	Page #
1.	# #
2.	# #
3.	# #
4.	# #
5.	# #
6.	# #
7.	# #
8.	# #

Name _____ Date _____ Class _____

Read Like a Detective

Directions: As we read “The Landlady” by Roald Dahl, pay attention to significant clues in the text that will help you predict events in the story. A crime has been committed. Use the foreshadowing clues to help you solve the crime.

What was the crime? _____

Foreshadowing Clues/Evidence (How did you know what was going to happen?)	Page #
1.	#
2.	#
3.	#
4.	#
5.	#
6.	#
7.	#
8.	#

